Notes from full RITF: Jim Sabatke- comment on ethics and dual relationships. Sometimes you don't have much choice, especially in rural areas. Are we sure we want this language? 'Such as the buying or selling items, services or goods' perhaps we need to add a qualifier such as "some dual relationships are unavoidable." Suggestion- look at wording from other national organization; look at training on ethics and boundaries on rural areas. This is vague language-

Should the peer specialist committee revisit this? Mark would like to retract his earlier motion, seconded by William; it will be sent back to the Peer Specialist committee. Vote carried-
